

Registration for mother tongue teaching in primary school

This form should be submitted to your child's school.

Excerpt from the Education Act:

Chapter 10. 7§ A student who has a guardian with a mother tongue other than Swedish shall be offered mother tongue teaching in this language if

1. The language is the student's daily language of interaction in the home, and
2. The student has basic knowledge of the language.

Mother tongue teaching in a national minority language (Finnish, Yiddish, meänkieli, Romani Chib and Sami) must be offered even if the student lacks basic knowledge of the language and/or if the language is not the student's daily language of contact at home.
